Homework 2

Abolfazl Hoseini, Hannane Montazer, Ashkan Shakiba

Question:

2.11. Are the Unified Process and UML the same thing? Explain your answer.

Answer:

UML is a modelling language, a set of rules and standards for drawing digrams. UP is a software development methodology or process, tells you step by step what you should do to develop software! Some of those steps may require drawing UML diagrams.